
Final Report

RENEWABLE ENERGY- Policy, Security, Electricity, Sustainable Transport, Water Resources/Management and the Environment

15 - 22 October 2005

Old Ship Hotel, 145 Kings Road, Brighton, East Sussex BN1 1NR, United Kingdom
Tel: 44 (0) 1273 329001, Fax: 44 (0) 1273 820718, email: oldship@paramount-hotels.co.uk

Sponsored by:

National Renewable Energy Laboratory

There were 23 participants and 20 speakers. The participants were from Vietnam, South Africa, Morocco, Pakistan, Malaysia, Indonesia, Bahrain, China, Taiwan, Ecuador, Uzbekistan, Iran, Canada, USA, Czech Republic, Hungary, Brazil, South Korea, and Belgium.

There were 32 invited lectures and 13 participants gave presentations. The invited speakers were from 11 UK Universities, four foreign Universities, 7- UK companies, two UK consultants and 5 agencies and organizations.

- UK Universities: University of Reading, University of Hertfordshire, University of Warwick, University of Ulster, University of Brighton, University College London (UCL) University of Surrey, University of Southampton, South Bank University, Nottingham Trent University and Oxford Brooke University.
- Foreign Universities: University of Florence – Italy, National Taiwan University – Taiwan, IPM University – Indonesia and Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia, Malaysia.
- Among the speakers were two consultants, Michael Jefferson and David Milborrow.
- UK companies: Riomay, AES Europe and Africa, PV Systems, Renewable Energy Systems, Solarcentury, Sunwarm International and Optima.
- Organizations and agencies were: DTI, National Renewable Energy Laboratory (NREL), ISESCO, COMSATS, AEP and WREN.

Group Photo International Seminar in Brighton, 2005

Presentation at the International Seminar in Brighton

There were four visits to: RES, Solarcentury, British Museum and GLA building.

All lectures were produced in hard copies and distributed to the participants as well as a group photograph and certificate of attendance.

The Seminar rating questionnaire showed that the participants rated the Seminar highly as one of the best they had attended for structure and benefits.

We would like to express our sincere thanks to our sponsors and contributors whose generosity made this memorable seminar possible.

Seminar organiser and director was Professor Ali Sayigh, Chairman of WREC and Director General of WREN, Brighton, UK.