

Dr A Kaabi-nejadian

He graduated from Japan with Ph D in 1988, Department of Architecture, Kogakuin University, on March 1988, Tokyo, Japan, and M.Sc. degree, Department of Mechanical Engineering, Keio University, on March 1983, Tokyo, Japan, and B.Sc. degree, Department of Mechanical Engineering, Tehran Polytechnic University, on May 1970, Tehran, Iran.

He was for many years chairman of Iran Solar Energy Society. He cooperated with WREN for holding several conferences in Iran early 2003 to 2006.

He received the “Order of Rising Sun” which is a prestigious medal, Gold Rays with Blue Ribbon in recognition of his outstanding contribution to Renewable Energy, from Emperor of Japan and presented to him by Mr Koichi GENBA, minister of foreign affairs of Japan on 8 November 2011. He is an Advisor of Renewable Energy Organization of Iran, ministry of energy. He is the founder and president of Iranian Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air conditioning, Engineers. Dr Kaabi-nejadian published many technical papers on thermal heating and cooling area.

His presentation on: Economical Evaluation of Electricity Production in Iran
By Using Renewable Energy